

Commitment to Excellence Partnership Agreement

This partnership agreement between home and school will be reviewed biennially by the pupil and personnel sub-committee of the governing body.

Date of last review: Summer 2018

Date of next review: Summer 2019

Mission

We want our students to reach their academic potential and develop the character skills and leadership qualities they need for success and happiness in life.

Values

- Humility means being modest and acting with calm determination.
- Honesty means being true to your word and acting with a high level of professional integrity.
- Humanity means being kind and acting with compassion and sensitivity.

1. Student's commitments

I fully commit to Carlton le Willows Academy in the following ways:

- I will arrive at school every day on time.
- I will remain at school throughout the instructional day.
- I will come to school every day prepared to learn.
- I will not take shortcuts. I will give 100% every day.
- I will always work, think, and behave in the best way I know how, and I will do whatever it takes for my peers and me to learn. Every day, I will be the best student and person I can be.
- I will complete all my homework every night. I will make sure my homework is of the best quality and that my parent/carer signs my planner.
- I will ask my teachers for help when I need it both in class and outside of class.
- If I make a mistake, I will use reflection to make a better choice the next time.
- I will follow my teachers' directions and school rules.
- I will demonstrate the values of humility, honesty and humanity.
- I will follow the school's dress code.
- I will uphold the high expectations of Carlton le Willows at all school related events on and off campus.
- I am responsible for my own behaviour, and I will accept responsibility for my actions.

2. The Academy's commitments

We commit to our students and parents in the following ways:

- We will ensure that Carlton le Willows is a safe and orderly place for students to learn.
- We will hold all of our students, parents, and ourselves to Carlton le Willows' high expectations.
- We are committed to character development and results.
- We are committed to our own professional growth and improvement.
- We will provide a wide range of opportunities for students to achieve their potential.
- We will provide lessons taught by proficient and highly qualified staff.
- We will monitor the quality of education that students receive.
- We will recognise and praise student progress, effort and commitment.
- We will offer opportunities for students to take responsibility.
- We will inform parents of the progress and welfare of their son or daughter.
- We will listen to and where appropriate, act upon students' and parents' views.
- We will always act in a professional manner when speaking with all people in our school community.
- We will strive to be the best we can be, modelling excellence and taking no shortcuts in preparing our students for success in university, college and in life.
- We will promote the values of humility, honesty and humanity.

3. Parents' or carers' commitment

We fully commit to Carlton le Willows Academy in the following ways:

- We will make sure our child arrives at school every day on time.
- We will notify the school no later than the beginning of the school day if our child will miss school.
- We will do all we can to support our child and the commitment he/she has made to attend Carlton le Willows.
- We will partner with the teachers and staff at the school to help our child excel, both academically and behaviourally.
- We will always help our child in the best way we know how, and we will do whatever it takes for him/her to learn.
- We will review our child's homework every night, sign his/her planner, and let him/her call a classmate or encourage him/her to speak to a teacher if there is a question and/or problem with the homework.
- We will read carefully and sign (if necessary) all the papers the school sends home to us. We will ask questions if we have them.
- We will always make ourselves available to our children and the school and address any concerns they may have in a professional manner.
- We will attend parents' evenings, and if needed meet regularly with teachers to discuss our child's progress.
- We will make sure our child follows the school's dress code.

- We will commit to participating at Carlton le Willows Academy by volunteering in a variety of ways, including attending parent forums, being an active member of the PTA, and other school-related activities.
- We will always act in a professional manner when speaking with all people in our school community.
- We will help our child prepare for university, college and life by supporting him/her and encouraging him/her to adhere to his/her commitment to excellence.
- We will demonstrate the values of humility, honesty and humanity.
- We are responsible for our child's behaviour, as well as our own
