

Changing simple sentences into compound sentences.

To make a simple sentence you need 4 things:

1. Words
2. Punctuation
3. A Verb
4. A Subject

A sentence is a group of words that makes sense on its own.

Chips, car, house, table, on, Friday.

This isn't a sentence.
It doesn't make sense.

I ate some chips in my house on Friday.

This is a sentence.
It makes sense on its own.

Now write 5 simple sentences about what you did at the weekend.

Simple sentence

I ran to school

The leaves on the tree were brown.

Using punctuation will show where the sentence begins and ends.

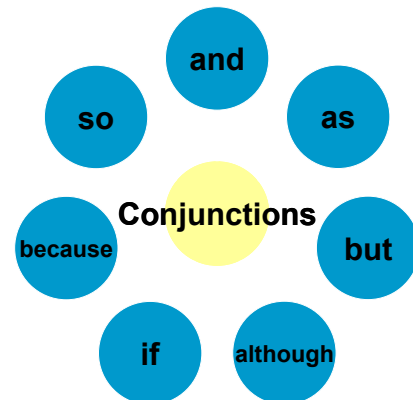

A sentence must begin with a capital letter.

A sentence must end with:

- a full-stop (.)
- a question mark (?)
- or an exclamation mark (!)

How do I make a compound Sentence? You can use conjunctions

Change your simple sentences into compound sentences.

Use the conjunctions to help you.

I ran to school and I was late.

The leaves on the tree were brown because it was autumn.
